Eleventh Sunday of Ordinary Time

“At the sight of the crowds, Jesus’ heart was moved with pity for them because they were troubled and abandoned, like sheep without a shepherd”.

Matthew 9:36 -10:8

In today's Gospel, Jesus shares his mission to proclaim the kingdom of heaven with his disciples. The signs of the kingdom's presence consist of the work that Jesus has already been doing: the sick are cured, lepers are cleansed, the dead are raised to life. The disciples are sent to continue doing the work that Jesus has begun. This is a moment of transition in Matthew's Gospel. The focus has shifted from the ministry of Jesus to the work of the community that he has inaugurated. More than any other Gospel, Matthew's Gospel elaborates on the work of the Church, which is to continue after Jesus' death and resurrection. The Gospel reports that Jesus commissions twelve disciples. Many scholars believe that the twelve disciples symbolize the twelve tribes of Israel. It designates, therefore, continuity between Israel and the Church. Matthew lists the names of the twelve disciples, as do Mark and Luke. Matthew also uses the word apostle when referring to the Twelve. The word apostle means “one who is sent.” In this context, Matthew is calling attention to the mission that the twelve disciples are being given. They are sent by Jesus to proclaim the kingdom of heaven in word and deed. As Jesus sent his disciples to continue his work and mission, so too the Church is sent by Jesus. The Church is his continuing presence on earth. Every member of the Church is sent by Jesus to contribute to this mission.

XI Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

“Una nación que me está consagrada.”

En las lecturas de esta semana, dos imágenes destacan para darnos una idea de la relación del Señor con su pueblo; con nosotros. La primera nos recuerda que Dios llevó al pueblo de Israel «sobre alas de águila». Si guardan su alianza, se convertirán en una nación santa (Primera Lectura). La segunda, en el Evangelio de Mateo, es la compasión de Jesús por su pueblo. Compadeciéndose de ellos, llama a sus doce discípulos y les da autoridad para sanar los y sostenerlos en su desamparo. Cuando comprendemos plenamente la magnitud de esta compasión, tal vez deseemos clamar y cantar con alegría, como el salmista. Sin embargo, como el pueblo no obedeció la voz del Señor, Dios muestra una vez más su amor misericordioso mediante la muerte de su Hijo por ellos; por nosotros. (Segunda lectura) Esta semana, entonces, centremos nuestra oración, especialmente, en aquellas personas del mundo que se sienten acosadas e indefensas, confiando en que el Señor las cuidará.

At the end of mass on June 20 and June 21 there will be Faith Formation registration packets for the new cycle at the entrance of the church. There will be limited room this year. Completed forms can be dropped off at the parish office from starting June 23 till July 31.
